SEVEN NEGROES DEAD.

They Are Shot Down by White Miners in Illinois.

TWO ARE WOUNDED.

The Trouble Dates Back a Year Ago, When the Blacks Took the Places of the Whites in the Mines Near Carterville.

Carterville, Ills., Sept. 18.—A bloody riot occurred here yesterday in which seven negroes were killed and two others received slight injuries.

The dead are: Rev. O. T. J. Floyd, Huse Bradley, John Black, Henry Barnum, Sam Cummins, Jim Hayes and an unidentified negro.

The trouble grew out of the conflict which has existed all the summer between the white miners of this part of the state and negro nonunion miners and the situation is considered critical. Company C, Fourth regiment Illinois national guard, arrived here Sunday evening under orders from Springfield to keep the peace. Excitement is intense.

The negroes are gathered at the Brush mines, near the city, and are in a violent state of excitement because of the killing of their companions. The presence of soldiers, however, may prevent them carrying out any plan of revenge.

The labor trouble here is closely associated with that at Pana and conflicts between striking white miners and negro nonunion miners has resulted in considerable loss of life and made it necessary to keep several companies of state militia on duty here for several months. The trouble has lasted for over a year and only last Monday had the conditions here become peaceful enough to warrant the withdrawal by Governor Tanner of the last company of military.

Since then the white miners of this place have refused to allow the negroes to come into town, always meeting them and ordering them back. Sunday, however, 13 negroes, all armed, marched into town going to the Illinois Central depot. It is claimed their purpose was to take a train and leave Carterville. The usual crowd of white miners gathered, however, and a wordy quarrel, resulting in a riot by one of the negroes using his pistol. A fusillade of bullets followed with the above results.

Soldiers Keeping Order.

Cartersville, Ills., Sept. 18.—Soldiers are patrolling the streets and guarding the mine property against an attack as a result of the battle in which seven negro nonunion miners were killed and two wounded Sunday. Although all is apparently quiet, the fear is that further outbreak may come any moment. So far no arrests of those who participated in the shooting have been made.

Want a Marble Depot.

Knoxville, Sept. 18.—General Manager Frank S. Gannon, of the Southern railway has been in this city to confer with marble men relative to the construction of the new passenger depot in this city. The business organizations of Knoxville have petitioned Mr. Gannon to have the depot built and finished in East Tennessee marble. His mission is to ascertain cost of such construction. He will furnish marble men copies of the plans that they may make estimates on a marble construction.

Fatal Hotel Fire.

Glidden, Tex., Sept. 18.—A most disastrous fire visited this village Saturday, destroying the McGuire hotel, a large 2-story structure. ### Strike Will Continue.

TWO NEW BATTLESHIPS.

Kearsarge Ready for Her Official Trial and the Kentucky Not Far Behind.

New York, Sept. 18.—The new battleship Kearsarge, which arrived here Sunday from Newport News, left the man-of-war anchorage at Tompkinsville early today and proceeded to the navy yard. Preparations have been begun there to put the warship into drydock as soon as possible. She has not been out of water since her launching a year ago, and her underbody is probably very foul. She will be scraped and painted and start Wednesday or Thursday for Boston, where the official trial of the board will go aboard. An effort will be made to bring the battleship back in time to participate in the Dewey celebration.

Kentucky Almost Completed.

Newport News, Va., Sept. 18.—The builders' trial of the first class battleship Kentucky, a sister ship of the Kearsarge, will take place about the first week in October. The Kentucky is only about four weeks behind the Kearsarge and is almost in condition to go out for her first run outside the Virginia capes. Her official trial will take place in the latter part of October. The Kearsarge, which will return here about Sept. 30, will go in commission in November. The Kentucky will follow her in December. The builders will then give their attention more closely to the Illinois and hurry her to completion.

Preparing for Work.

Chicago, Sept. 18.—The Democratic national committeemen are holding a conference in this city for the purpose of listening to suggestions about organization and preliminary campaign work. Three subcommittees of the national committee held separate meetings for the purpose of forming a permanent organization. Afterward they held a joint meeting that was presided over by Chairman Johnson of the executive committee. The latter body will provide for the opening and maintenance of permanent headquarters in Chicago and place Chairman Johnson in charge of it. The ways and means committee are to assume command of the financial part of the work.

Mrs. Blackburn Dead.

Mr. Blackburn left home a few days ago, his wife's health showing great improvement. He was on his way from the east when she expired. At her bedside were all of her children except one daughter, the wife of Col. William P. Hall, United States army, who is ill in Washington. Mrs. Blackburn was the daughter of the late Dr. Chris C. Graham, a noted Kentuckian and centenarian.

Alger Will Withdraw.

Detroit at La Guayra.

Washington, Sept. 18.—A cable received at the navy department from San Juan, Porto Rico, states that the Detroit sailed from that place Saturday for La Guayra, Venezuela. An exchange says this is the reason a locomotive is called "she." They wear a jacket, an apron, shoes, hose and drag a train behind them; they have a lap, ride wheels, will not turn out for pedestrians and sometimes refuse to work; they attract men, are sometimes very contrary and it always takes a man to manage them. It might also be added they have been known to run over men sometimes.

There is a little story going the rounds regarding the reward given the soldiers. It is said that in battle the privates occupy the firing lines, the corporals are one yard in the rear of the privates, the sergeants are five yards in the rear of the corporals, the lieutenants twenty-five yards in the rear of the sergeant, the captain 125 yards in the rear of the lieutenants, the majors 200 yards in the rear of the captain the colonel 500 yards in the rear of the majors, the general 5000 yards in the rear of the colonels, while the commanding general is at Washington, D. C. After the battle the commanding general gets 98 per cent of the glory, the brigadier general 1 1-2 per cent, the colonel 1-8 per cent, the other commissioned officers get the balance, while the privates get talked about on the Fourth of July.—Pecan Valley News.

This morning's express brought us another generous supply of Alfred Wright's Handkerchief Extracts.

TROOPS FOR OTIS.

All of the Reinforcements Will Sail for Manila by Nov. 1.

Washington, Sept. 18.—Arrangements have been made by the war department for the departure for Manila by Nov. 1 of all the troops intended for General Otis. This means that Secretary Root's statement that "every mother's son of the reinforcements will eat Christmas dinner in Manila," will prove correct.

That there may be no lack of transportation, the collier Cassius is to be fitted up as a transport at an expense of $120,000 and General Ludington has in mind several other vessels which may be secured. It is estimated that it will be necessary to provide transportation for 29,918 men and that this table has been prepared showing what the vessels now in service can do:

Tartar—Oct. 20, 45 officers, 1200 men.

Newport—Oct. 20, 10 officers, 500 men.

Indiana—Oct. 20, 40 officers, 900 men.

Anglo-Australian—Oct. 25, 50 officers, 1000 men.

Thomas—Nov. 1, from New York, 86 officers, 1690 men.

Logan—Nov. 1, from New York, 86 officers, 1690 men.

Meade—Nov. 1, from New York, 50 officers, 1200 men.

Senator—Thirty-five officers, 712 men.

City of Sydney—Twenty-five officers, 700 men.

St. Paul—Forty officers, 850 men.

Pueblo—Thirty-six officers, 650 men.

There will remain to be transported four regiments, a total of 4236 men.

The Ohio and Morgan City which are expected to return early in November, can accommodate 42 officers and 1334 men, and the Cassius, now being fitted up is expected to provide accommodations for 600 more. Two or three more vessels can take the rest, and efforts are now being made to secure them.

General Otis cables to the war department that the cable ship Hooker, stranded on Corridor island can be saved. Arrangements have been made for taking the ship to the Cavite navyyard where she will be put in condition under the direction of Naval Constructor Hobson, for the voyage to Hong Kong where she will be decked and repaired.

In order to provide ample transportation facilities for the columns which will operate against the Filipinos, General Ludington is shipping 1500 more mules to Manila. Thirteen hundred are now on the way.

In compliance with the request of General Otis, orders have been issued assigning these officers to duty as additional members of his staff:

Major J. N. Morrison, judge advocate general; Major S. J. Sturgis, assistant adjutant general; Major P. G. Pershing, assistant adjutant general; Major R. H. Noble, assistant adjutant general; Lieutenant Colonel E. A. Garlington, inspector general; Major P. W. West, inspector general; Major F. H. Beach, inspector general; Major J. T. Knight and Captains Thomas Swobe, R. R. Stevens, J. W. Little, W. H. Miller and G. G. Bailey, quartermaster's department and Captain John Biddle, corps of engineers.

Fifty Thousand Troops Required.

San Francisco, Sept. 18.—Major S. R. Jones of the United States army, who has been quartermaster at Manila since that city was captured by the Americans, was a passenger on the Coptic, which arrived from Hong Hong and Yokohama via Honolulu, and will report to Washington. When Jones left Manila a forward movement in the rain and mud was being made against the insurgents. He is of the opinion that 50,000 men will have to be kept on the island of Luzon for 10 years in order to keep peace, but actual fighting will not last six weeks when that number has been landed in Manila.

Otis Refuses.

London, Sept. 18.—A dispatch to Reuters Telegraph company from Hong Kong says advices from Manila announce that Aguinaldo is willing to release all sick and civilian Spanish prisoners, but it is added Otis refuses to allow a Spanish vessel to proceed to Filipino ports to receive them.

Arm Crushed In Gin.

Taylor, Tex., Sept. 18.—In a gin accident at Obermiller's gin, Alvin Lehman has his arm crushed. The arm was amputated to save the young man's life.

FROM KURTEN.

As I have not written any thing to the paper in some time, I will endeavor to give you a few dots. People have almost got their crops all gathered and hauled away, all except their cotton and they will soon have it out.

There was preaching at the church last second Sunday by Rev. A. M. Stewart; also singing at Mr. Wash Henderson's, in the evening.

There is a great deal of sickness in this community at this writing, but we hope it will not continue. Among the sick ones are Grandma Hearn, Mrs. Ebb Lloyd and two of Mr. M. Easters' children, and we are hoping to see their recovery.

We are having some very hot and dry weather. There has not been any singing at Kurten; for a time we hope it will not be long before it will start again.

We are sorry to learn of Mr. John Payne's death and extend our sympathy to the bereaved ones. Mr. Payne was a nice and an excellent young man, and was thought well of by everybody that knew him. Keen Clipper.

Hatfield Convicted.

The jury reached this verdict after deliberating more than 12 hours. ## ALL SIGNS WARLIKE.

A Clash Between England and the Transvaal Getting Nearer.

ALL HOPE IS GONE

Relations Are so Strained That a Step Will Cause an Outbreak. Seriousness Is Felt in Both Countries.

London, Sept. 18.—The Transvaal situation remains practically unchanged. General apprehension in regard to the outcome is reflected by a decline in consols and stocks on the stock exchange where, although all stocks continued dull, there was not the slightest approach to excitement. The text of President Kruger's reply has been given out by the secretary of state for the colonies, Mr. Chamberlain, but it adds nothing of importance to the summary cabled to the Associated Press Sunday evening. The language in many places is taken to indicate a firm, unyielding position. The reply, however, concludes:

"If her majesty's government is willing and feels able to make this decision, it will put an end to the present state of tension. Race hatred would decrease and die out and prosperity and welfare in the South African republic and the whole of South Africa can be developed and furthered and fraternization between the different nationalities will increase."

The second edition of The Times contains a dispatch from Johannesburg which says:

"There is, I am informed, some early coup in contemplation. Quantities of compressed forage have been forwarded in the direction of the Natal border to indicate some move on the part of the troops in that quarter. The government is buying horses freely."

The evening papers all indicate the seriousness of the crisis, but the St. James Gazette says:

"It need not be imagined anything will be done on our side in a hurry. The cabinet will first reconsider and secondly formulate fresh proposals. Therefore, these commentators on crisis who assume that fighting to commence immediately, commence obviously a little previously. Of course it is quite possible that the Boers may begin hostilities, in which case our troops have to defend British territory. But, unless the Boers take the offensive, negotiations will be prolonged until reinforcements, now on the way south to Africa reach their destination."

Olive Schreiner, (Mrs. Croxweight), contributes an eloquent cable letter on the situation to the Manchester Guardian. She says:

"Let England clearly understand what war in South Africa means. The largest empire the world has ever seen will hurl a full force against a small state and about 30,000 men, including loads of 16 and old men of 60, without a standing army or organized commissariat. The entire little people have resolved themselves into an army and their wives and daughters who prepare the bread and meat for the farmers who put it in their saddlebags when they go to meet the enemy. Today, the women of the Transvaal are demanding guns that they may take part in the last stand. We may crush little people with the aid of the Australians and Canadians since the British Isles seem unable to crush them alone. We may take their land and lower their little flag of independence, so dear to the Boer, but we shall have placed a stain upon our own that centuries will not wash out. Only international speculators, who, through persistent misrepresentations and by means of the press wrought this evil, will again fill his already overloaded pockets with South African gold."

ALL HOPE GONE.

War Between Great Britain and the Transvaal Believed Imminent.

London, Sept. 18.—All the dispatches from South Africa talk of the imminence of hostilities and the preparations for them. In Johannesburg it seems to be taken for granted that the Orange Free State has approved President Kruger's note and promised active assistance in the event of war.

An official telegram posted at Volsrust says that The Transvaal, with the assent of the Orange Free State, repudiates British suzerainty and adheres to the seven years franchise.

At Cape Town it is reported that Mr. Hofmeyer, the Afrikaner leader, sent a communication to President Steyn of the Orange Free State, entreating him to do his utmost to preserve peace, but that he received in answer the words "Too late."

All military men agree that it is out of the question to begin hostile operations before the middle of next month, no rain having fallen and the veldt being still bare.

Steamer Dunrae Lost.

London, Sept. 18.—The boat containing the captain and 11 men from the French steamer Dunrae, reported Saturday to have foundered off the Island of Elba in the Mediterranean, is feared to have sunk with all on board. The Dunrae, formerly the Alesia, was commanded by Captain Coste, and was last reported at Marseilles on Aug. 5, from New Orleans. Parts of the crew were saved, according to first dispatch.
